

Pictorvision Is Moving

To accommodate our growth and meet the needs of our customers, Pictorvision is pleased to announce that effective February 1 2010, we will be relocating our corporate headquarters to 16238 Raymer St. Van Nuys, CA.

This new 17,000 sq. ft facility, located next to Van Nuys airport (just a few doors down from the 94th Aero Squadron Restaurant) will help us in our efforts to strategically position Pictorvision as the hub of aerial cinematography and intelligent imaging in the market. To support this initiative, we are seeking to sub-rent warehouse and/or office space to stakeholders in related industries - to inquire about space rental, please contact us today. Similarly, this larger facility will provide Pictorvision with the space necessary for new product expansion, employee growth and is the ideal location to host client meetings, industry groups and product demonstrations.

We look forward to seeing you soon at our official opening of this new facility.
